Graduate Assistant Teachers of Maths
(Two Maths Posts – Temporary for One Year)

Required for September 2020

Full Time

Unqualified Teacher Scale: (£17,208 to £27,216)

An Exciting Opportunity to Join a Dynamic New Team!

Turves Green Boys’ School is a successful, popular and thriving 11-16 school with approximately 650 pupils on roll. The school is seeking to appoint committed and motivated individuals to join a team of Assistant Teachers who will, with a specific focus on Maths, support our pupils in achieving their full potential at GCSE. This is an exciting opportunity to contribute to making a positive impact on young people at a crucial time in their education.

Successful candidates will plan and deliver high quality learning sessions to small groups of targeted pupils to increase their rates of progress in Maths. They will monitor and report pupil progression, and work alongside Maths teachers to support pupils to achieve the best possible outcomes.

The right candidate will need to be professional, adaptable, have good communication skills, and the ability to work well as part of a team. They must demonstrate full commitment to the school and its drive to continually raise standards.

This role would be well suited to a graduate with a desire to make a difference in an educational setting, and is ideal for individuals who are looking to gain experience in education with a view to moving into teaching in the future.

How to apply:
If you are inspired by this opportunity and want to be part of the next stage of our school development, we would love to hear from you.

Please visit the school website at www.tgbs.co.uk and download the application form, job description and associated documents.
